CREATIVITY: A COMBINATION OF DISCIPLINE AND CHILDLIKE SPIRIT!

Pratapians displayed their holidays' homework in the Hall of Fame on 18th July, 2022. The meticulously prepared projects on various topics and themes exhibited on the occasion showcased their creativity and were a testimony to the fact that learning does not end at their classroom door.

The enthusiastic students (VII -X) explained their creations like best out of waste, compost made at home etc. They also shared the wonderful poems composed by them on Father's Day. The series of charts and working models on Science and Social Studies were also well received by everyone.

EMPOWERING MINDS BEYOND BOOKS

The trip to Mojoland was once-in-a-lifetime experience for all of us. It was a fantabulous trip and we could refill our batteries, chill out & rejuvenate after a long covid 19 period. The snowpark was the cherry on the cake and who can forget the fun that we had at the fantastic waterpark! Overall, it was just amazing! And we enjoyed a lot!

Thanks to our school for organising such a superb trip.

Van Mahotsav Celebration

With a motto to spread the message of importance of trees, the school celebrated the Van Mahotsav on 26th July 2022. The Hon'ble DFO Mr Jai Kumar graced the occasion with his benign presence.

The plethora of events which marked the occasion began with a thought-provoking song 'Kahin Lupt Na Ho Jaayen Hum' by grade VII-VIII students. To convey the message in a more realistic and effective manner, students delivered informative speeches on various environment related issues.

Brahmaputra house spoke on Soil Erosion, Ganga house on waterscarcity, Kaveri House, expressed their views on alternative source of energy, Narmada house on alternative to plastic, Satluj house lent their voice for global warming and Yamuna house for afforestation.

THE SCHOOL SOAKS IN PATRIOTIC FERVOUR CELEBRATING 75TH ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE DAY

The spirit of freedom came alive as the school celebrated the 76th Independence Day with pride and patriotic zeal. The festivities started with the hoisting of national flag and releasing of the tri-colour balloons to the accompaniment of the National Anthem. The school contingent marching to the beat of drum saluted the national flag. The agile and energetic team of young Pratapians showcased a series of captivating synchronised drills and yogic performances.

They expressed their gratitude to the indomitable spirit of the soldiers, the guardians of the frontiers through a musical tribute and electrifying dance performance. The Hon'ble Director Principal Ma'am exhorted the students to preserve and protect the hard earned freedom by performing their duties and shouldering responsibilities faithfully.

REMINISCING INDIA'S STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM

The school celebrated AZADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV with great zest and fervour. A special series of talks was held on the occasion to commemorate the contributions of the forgotten heroes of our freedom struggle. As a part of the campaign, the students delivered speeches highlighting the valour and of many forgotten revolutionaries and saluted the spark and fire that they exhibited.

I OWE IT TO MY ALMA MATER

I Mahi Saini, a proud Pratapian got 99.4% in my 10th board exams. I would like to thank my teachers and school for motivating, supporting and providing us the best study material possible. What you achieve depends upon your hard work, your teacher's hard work, peer group and support system. All these conditions were present in my case in a right way. The teachers here have always worked upon building a strong foundation. I hope that in future as well I will make my parents and school proud.

Junior School Activities at a Glance

TODAY A READER, TOMORROW A LEADER

July
Author of the Month
J.K Rowling

To foster reading skills among the students Pratap Public School, Jr. Wing, Karnal celebrated "Pottermania", as a salute to J. K. Rowling on her birthday. Using the platform, 'The Potterheads' showcased their talents and creativity by staging dramas and short skits. The characters from "Harry Potter" were brought alive on stage, making it easier for students to relate to what they have read in books. Besides this, drawings and sketches made by the students were also displayed in an exhibition.

August
Author of the Month
Sudha Murthy

The author for the month of August was diligently chosen for the students. August 19 being the birthday of the versatile personality Ma'am Sudha Murthy was marked by reading stories from the books of Indian educator, author and philanthropist. The classrooms were turned into story rooms by the lively participants.
